

---

Foregut Surgery Week – Information Package

---

- What does this program consist in?
This program is an Erasmus financed program, which will be held between the 15th and 20th of July, that will consist of a week dedicated to educate students in the basics of foregut surgery. A group of 15 students from different European countries will be enrolled in this program.
- Who is it for?
Medical students from European countries, enrolled in years 4 to 6, that are interested in surgery and want to learn more regarding foregut surgery. Furthermore, this program promoted European collaboration, encouraging meeting other students from European countries as well as European experts in the field of Foregut Surgery.
- Where will the program take place?
The program will take place in Cluj-Napoca, Romania and will be coordinated by local surgeons and gastroenterologists, as well as other professionals involved in research and medical education. The program will be designed and coordinated by a group of European experts from different countries.
- How can I enroll?
You can enroll by registering on our website. The list of coordinators and enrollment forms can be consulted on our website: www.centrulsergiuduca.ro. After registration, you will receive an e-mail with more details regarding the registration process.
Also, you will need to contact a local Erasmus bureau official from your University, who will get in contact with the Cluj-Napoca Erasmus bureau in order to finalize the procedures for your travel.
- What is the program?
The program is attached separately as an individual file. You can also consult the program on our website.
- What should I be expecting?
The program will cover theoretical presentations, assisting endoscopic and surgical procedures and hands-on exercises. Furthermore, a sociocultural program will be set in place so you can discover the local culture and food of Romania.
- Will the accommodation and travel expenses be included?
Yes, accommodation (in a student dorm localized near the city center), as well as the sociocultural program will be covered by the organizers.
You will need to make your own travel arrangements.
For more information, contact us at: centrulsergiuduca@gmail.com